NEBRASKA ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

Last issue date: August 31, 1999

Title 234 – Nebraska State Board of Examiners for Land Surveyors

Chapter - 3 - Examinations

004. A postponement of an examination or reexamination may be granted to any applicant once for each application. Any individual who has received a postponement for either an examination or reexamination shall not be eligible for postponement again until he or she has filed and the Board has approved a new application. If an applicant wishes to postpone an examination he or she shall notify the Secretary of the Board to that effect ~~at least five (5) days~~ prior to the date of said examination. Failure to notify the Secretary as prescribed will be counted as an appearance at and a failure of the examination. ~~The Board may waive the notification requirement only where an emergency concerning weather, illness of the applicant or their immediate family or a death in the immediate family exists.~~ Sec. 81-8,110.08

011. Effective January 12, 2008, upon notification by the Board that a land surveyor applicant has passed the examination he or she shall submit a registration fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) in the form of a check, draft or money order made payable to the Secretary of the Board of Examiners for Land Surveyors. Effective January 12, 2008, upon notification by the Board that a surveyor-in-training applicant has passed the examination he or she shall submit a registration fee not to exceed twenty dollars ($20.00) in the form of a check, draft or money order made payable to the Secretary of the Board of Examiners for Land Surveyors. Sec. 81-8,118

~~011~~012. The Secretary shall submit to all applicants for registration by reciprocity a questionnaire relative to surveying laws in Nebraska and the Secretary shall interview and examine all applicants for registration by reciprocity. The interview and examination must be completed within two years after notification by the Board. Sec. 81-8,120

~~012~~013. Applicants for inactive registration as prescribed in Chapter 1, paragraph 004. of these rules shall not be required to take an examination. Sec. 81-8,119.01

~~013~~014. Holders of an inactive registration applying for active registration shall be required to successfully complete the same written examination as a surveyor-in-training applying for registration as a land surveyor. Provided, the board shall waive the written portion of the examination if the applicant elects to demonstrate proficiency by providing proof of professional development. Proof of professional development shall mean completing professional development hours as defined in Chapter 10 of these rules. The applicant shall be required to complete forty-five (45) PDHs. All PDHs required must be obtained during the time the applicant's registration has been inactive. The PDHs required shall be reported on the form provided by the Board and the applicant shall provide supporting documentation. Any professional development hours which are used to apply for active registration shall be used for that purpose exclusively and shall not count in any other requirements in these rules. Sec.81-8,119.01