

Members of Hall of Fame Committee view clay bust

December 31, 2013

Members of the Nebraska Hall of Fame Committee got the opportunity to view the clay bust of Alvin Saunders Johnson. Johnson, a Nebraska native will be honored during a public ceremony on May 30, 2014. During that time, the bronze bust will be unveiled and placed on display in the State Capitol.

North Carolina artist Wesley Wofford was commissioned to sculpt the bust. Using a variety of photos, he created the full scale clay model.

Sec. Gale comparing photos to the clay model.

Sculptor Wesley Wofford makes adjustments to his model.