Dulaney honored for outstanding election service

LINCOLN – Vera Dulaney, Scotts Bluff County clerk and election commissioner, is the 2011 recipient of the Meritorious Service Award presented by Nebraska Secretary of State John Gale for exemplary service in election administration.

Gale noted that Dulaney of Gering has provided dedicated public service since taking office in 1983.

Gale commended Dulaney for her efforts to promote voter turnout, improve election laws and foster election education. He praised her for being a mentor for many Nebraska county election administrators.

“Vera Dulaney has shown a true passion for our election system and accommodating voters,” Gale said. “Her distinguished career has advanced the cause of our democracy.”

Dulaney is a past recipient of the County Official of the Year Award by the Nebraska Association of County Officials. She is a past president of the Nebraska Association of County Clerks, Register of Deeds and Election Commissioners.
