Parties notify Sec. Gale they will open their ballots for primary

LINCOLN — The Democratic and Libertarian parties of Nebraska have notified Secretary of State John Gale that they have opened their ballots during the primary election on May 10 to allow nonpartisan voters to vote in any race where their party is nominating a candidate for partisan office.

Both parties did the same thing prior to the primary election in 2014. As a result, nonpartisan voters can request a partisan ballot early from their county election office or at their polling place on Election Day.

The first early ballots will be mailed by the counties on April 4. Early voting at the county election offices will start on April 11.
