REG-34-002 PETITION FOR DECLARATORY ORDER

002.01 Who May File. Any person may petition the Department to issue a declaratory order as to the applicability to specified circumstances of a law or action which is within the primary jurisdiction of the Department.

002.02 When Declaratory Orders Are Appropriate. A declaratory order may be requested on the applicability of a law or action enforced by the Department. A declaratory order may be requested only on the applicability of existing laws or actions. A declaratory order may be requested to obtain an analysis of proposed conduct, not to obtain an analysis of conduct that has already occurred.

002.03 When Declaratory Orders Are Inappropriate. The Department shall not issue a declaratory order where:

002.03A The petition requests a declaratory order on a matter that is outside the scope of the authority of the Department;

002.03B The petition requests review or appeal of a decision made by the Department in a contested case;

002.03C The petition requests a declaratory order on the effect of past conduct;

002.03F The issue raised in the petition has been settled by a change in circumstances or other means;

002.03I The question posed or facts presented are insufficiently specific, overly broad, or are otherwise inappropriate.

002.04 The Department may refuse to issue a declaratory order where:

002.04A Refusal is necessary to assure adequate Department resources are available for issuing rulings on petitions raising questions of greater urgency or significance;

002.04B The question presented is so complex that the Department has not had sufficient opportunity or resources to develop an appropriate declaratory order; or
