The credit allowed shall be for assets located in Nebraska;~~

~~008.01A The amount of annual tax credit for the owner of agricultural assets will be based on the rent received by the owner;~~

~~008.01B Such assets shall be rented or leased at prevailing community rates as agreed to by the beginning farmer or livestock producer and the owner of the agricultural assets;~~

~~008.01C~~ The tax credit will be equal to

~~008.01C(1)~~ Ten percent of the annual gross cash rent income paid by the beginning farmer or livestock producer to the owner of said assets; or

~~008.01C(2)~~ Fifteen percent of the approved cash equivalent of the annual share rent agreement as stated in a signed joint agreement which records the method of determining a fair and reasonable cash equivalent of the dollar amounts of the owner's portion of the share rental agreement as stated in divisions ~~006.01A(5)(b)~~ and ~~006.01B(2)(b)~~ to be paid each year for three years;

~~008.01D~~ If the Board does not approve the dollar amount as the cash equivalent of the share rental agreement, the beginning farmer and the owner of the agricultural assets may submit a new plan for approval or begin the appeal process in part ~~007.03D~~;

~~008.02~~ A qualified beginning farmer or livestock producer in the first, second, or third year of a qualifying three-year rental agreement shall be allowed a one-time credit to be applied against the state income tax liability of such individual for the cost of participation in the financial management program required for eligibility under section 77-5209 of the Act. The amount of the credit shall be the actual cost of participation in an approved program incurred during the tax year for which the credit is claimed, up to a maximum of five hundred dollars.

~~008.03~~ The tax credit eligibility is reviewed and certified annually by the Board.

~~008.03A~~ Tax credit certificates will be distributed by the Board to the owners.

~~008.03A(1)~~ One certificate will be kept in the Beginning Farmer Program files; and ~~008.03A(2)~~ Two certificates will be mailed to the owner of agricultural assets; one of which should be attached to his or her Nebraska income tax return and the other kept for their personal records.

~~008.03B~~ The tax credit shall be granted by the Department of Revenue when the agricultural asset owner files their annual Nebraska income tax return;

~~008.03C~~ A tax credit may be granted each year for a period of up to three years;

~~008.03C(1)~~ Each agricultural asset will not be rented or leased by the beginning farmer or livestock producer as part of the Beginning Farmer Tax Credit Act more than three years, except as allowed in section 009;

~~008.03C(2)~~ An owner of agricultural assets may receive a tax credit on more than one lease with different parties or with the same party during the same three-year period;

~~008.03C(3)~~ An agricultural asset may receive tax credits from one to three years while being owned by one owner except as allowed in subsection 009.02; and

~~008.03C(4)~~ A qualified beginning farmer or livestock producer may be eligible to rent or lease more than one agricultural asset from one or more qualified owners of agricultural assets.

007.009 Guidelines and Procedures Relating to Tax Credits.

007.01 ~~009.01~~ At least semi-annually, the Board will review new or pending applications from beginning farmers and owners of agricultural assets for tax credit certification; A tax credit may be granted to the owner of agricultural assets each year for a period of up to three years;

007.01A Each agricultural asset will not be eligible as part of the Act more than three years, except as allowed in 91 NAC 1-007.02;

007.01B An owner of agricultural assets may receive a tax credit on more than one lease with different parties or with the same party during the same three-year period;

007.01C An agricultural asset may receive tax credits from one to three years while being owned by one owner except as allowed in 91 NAC 1-007.02; and

007.01D A qualified beginning farmer or livestock producer may be eligible to rent or lease more than one agricultural asset from one or more qualified owners of agricultural assets.

007.02 ~~009.02~~ An owner of agricultural assets or qualified beginning farmer or livestock producer may terminate such agreement according to the terms of said contractual agreement or for reasonable cause. The agricultural owner's tax credit shall be affected as follows:

007.02A ~~009.02A~~ The owner of the agricultural asset shall not be eligible for further credits on that particular asset unless the rental agreement is terminated prior to the end of the three year period through no fault of the owner of agricultural ~~asset~~ assets;

007.02B ~~009.02B~~ If the Board finds that such a termination was not the fault of the owner of agricultural assets, they may approve the owner for credits arising from a subsequent qualifying rental agreement with a different qualified beginning farmer or livestock producer;

007.02C ~~009.02C~~ If an agreement is terminated without fault on the part of the owner of agricultural assets as determined by the Board, the tax credit shall not be retroactively disallowed;

007.02D ~~009.02D~~ If an agreement is terminated with fault on the part of the owner of agricultural assets as determined by the Board, any prior tax credits claimed by such owner shall be disallowed and recaptured and shall be immediately due and payable to the State of Nebraska;

007.02E ~~009.02E~~ If an agreement is terminated without fault on the part of the beginning farmer as determined by the Board, the beginning farmer who is eligible may

TITLE 91
Chapter 1

rent or lease additional agricultural assets from the same or other eligible owners of agricultural assets as part of the tax credit program; or

007.02F ~~009.02F~~ Should an agricultural asset be sold during the 3 year term or thereafter, the new owner and the rental agreement must qualify under the act in order for the tax credit to apply.

~~009.03~~ The eligible rental agreements as stated in subpart 006.01A(5) and the positive cash flow analysis as stated in part 004.07B, will be reviewed by the Board to determine by a majority vote that the farm or facility meets the definition of a viably sized farm as stated in subsection 003.06. The farm or livestock facility may vary according to the region of the state where it is located; the quality, type, and number of crops or livestock produced; off farm income and expense; and other factors related to the farming or livestock production;

007.03 ~~009.04~~ Allowable tax ~~credit~~ credits shall be distributed in the same manner as income is distributed to the partners, members, shareholders, or beneficiaries of a partnership, a corporation, a ~~syndicate~~, or an estate, or trust; ~~and~~.

~~009.05~~ If a dispute arises, the beginning farmer or livestock producer or the owner of the agricultural assets may voluntarily request mediation to determine a solution that is acceptable to both.

~~010.00~~ Financial Management Program Certification and Guidelines. Board approved financial management programs to be completed by the beginning farmer or livestock producer shall include course work on the creation and proper use of record-keeping systems, periodic private consultations with financial management personnel, monthly and year-end cash flow analysis, detailed enterprise analysis, etc. Proof of completion of the program or course, and qualifies the Beginning Farmer for the tax credit defined in 008.02.

008 Financial Management Program Certification. The qualified beginning farmer or livestock producer shall be allowed a one-time credit to be applied against the state income tax liability of such individual for the cost of participation in an approved financial management program required for eligibility under §77-5209 of the Act. The amount of the credit shall be the actual cost of participation in an approved program incurred during the tax year for which the credit is claimed, up to a maximum of five-hundred dollars.

009 ~~011.00~~ Beginning Farmer Personal Property Tax Exemption Certification and Guidelines.

009.01 The qualified beginning farmer as defined in 91 NAC 1-004 that is eligible for the Personal Property Tax Exception will apply for a Certificate of Eligibility on or before November 1st of the year preceding the year for which the exemption is to begin.

009.01A The beginning farmer's Certificate of Eligibility may be presented to their county assessor within three years of Board approval should they apply for the Personal Property Tax Exemption without an owner and a three-year rental agreement.

009.01B The beginning farmer's Certificate of Eligibility may be presented to the county assessor in year 1, year 2, or year 3 of their three year rental agreement when applying with an owner and a three-year rental agreement.
